

2020 Pueblo of Laguna General Election

By Shannon Douma, Chairperson, Pueblo of Laguna Election Board

The Election Board has been working diligently over the past year to prepare for the upcoming 2020 General Election at the Pueblo of Laguna. The date of the 2020 General Election is Monday, December 21, 2020.

On June 5, 2020, the Pueblo of Laguna Tribal Council approved a 100% Absentee Voting by mail for the upcoming 2020 General Election for all eligible voters. In the POL Constitution, Article VII-Elections, Section 2. Eligibility of Voters are all members of the Pueblo eighteen (18) years of age or over shall have the right to vote at all Pueblo Elections in accordance with the ordinances of the Pueblo. The Pueblo Council shall take appropriate action to accord members the opportunity to exercise their right to vote including an absentee voting process. The Election Board is authorized to conduct the election according to Section 3-1-7 of the Election Code.

All eligible voters within a household were mailed a Notification Card beginning in July 2020, regarding the upcoming election and that it would be 100% Voting by mail. If you still need to update your information you can access an address change form by visiting <https://www.lagunapueblo-nsn.gov/> or the Tribal Enrollment Office for more information at (505) 552-6654.

Absentee Ballots for the upcoming 2020 General Election will be mailed to all eligible voters no later than November 6, 2020, to the address that is on file in the Tribal Enrollment Office. It is important to read the information on how to complete the Absentee Ballot and how to mail it back. The Ballot will include a secrecy envelope and an official General Election envelope to mail back to the Pueblo of Laguna Election Board at PO Box 179, Old Laguna, NM 87026.

All Ballots should be received by Monday, December 21, 2020. If you should have any questions, email the Pueblo of Laguna Election Board at electionboard@pol-nsn.gov or call the Tribal Building at (505) 552-6654.
